

FESTIVAL of the CREATIVE ARTS

OCTOBER 6-9, 2022

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

All events are free of charge - research.fsu.edu/fca

Thursday, October 6

Imagining the Future - Educating the Next Generation (1)

Symposium with faculty discussing the future of arts education.

Lori Gooding, Steve Kelly, Lorenzo Pericolo, Sara Scott Shields

5:30 PM - 6:30 PM
Dohnányi Recital Hall, Housewright Building, College of Music

Daring Women Doctors

Screening of a documentary on nineteenth-century women doctors.

Post-Screening discussion.
Valerie Scoon, Jing Wang

7:00 PM - 8:30 PM
College of Motion Picture Arts

Friday, October 7

Science and Words

Hear how a cyborg poet, a Pulitzer Prize winning novelist, and a graphic novelist engage science in their writing. Robert Olen Butler, Russ Franklin, Jillian Weise

2:00 PM - 5:00 PM
MagLab

Friday, October 7

Imagining the Future - Educating the Next Generation (2)

Symposium with faculty discussing the future of arts education.

Leon Anderson, Geoffrey Deibel, David Kirby, Sahoko Sato Timpone

5:30 PM - 6:30 PM
Dohnányi Recital Hall, Housewright Building, College of Music

Music and the Visual Arts

Textile Music; Improvising to Images; Choral Works inspired by Art.

Kari Adams, Annie Booth, Karen Large, Meredith Lynn, Stephanie Sickler, Liliya Ugay, Levana

7:30 PM - 9:00 PM
Opperman Music Hall, College of Music

Saturday, October 8

Prelude to a Premiere

A joint performance by the Marching Chiefs and the FSU Flying High Circus
Patrick Dunnigan, Chad Matthews

9:30 AM - 10:10 AM
Westcott Plaza

Paint the Town

Activity for Children Ages 5-10.

Collaborate on a large mural featuring images of historic, iconic, and memorable places in Tallahassee.

Sara Scott Shields

Exhibition by Interior Architecture and Design Students and Studio D.

Marlo Randsdell

10:00 AM - 12:00 PM
William Johnston Building

Saturday, October 8

Premiere

Take part in the first performance of a new piece for audience and orchestra on a text of Paul Dirac. Works of Nico Gutierrez, Jessie Montgomery, Sibelius, and a rare performance of the Vaughan Williams Concerto for Tuba.

Justin Benavidez, Nico Gutierrez, Michael Hanawalt, Alexander Jiménez, Mark Riley, University Symphony Orchestra and University Choirs

10:30 AM - 11:45 AM
Ruby Diamond Concert Hall

walk to the School of Theatre (5 mins)

Beyond the Stage

A behind-the-scenes look at Sweet Charity

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM
Richard G. Fallon Theatre, School of Theatre

RSO Showcase

Join us for a diverse array of performances by Registered Student Organizations.

3:00 - 6:00 PM
Club Downunder, Student Union

Invisible History - Middle Florida's Hidden Roots

Screening of the Emmy-winning documentary on the roots of slavery in Florida. Post-Screening discussion.

Maxine Jones, Valerie Scoon

7:00 PM - 8:30 PM
College of Motion Picture Arts

Sunday, October 9

Kaleidoscope

First performance of an interdisciplinary work with contributions from more than 30 students in creative writing, fine arts, music, theatre, and dance.

Anjali Austin, Director

2:00 PM - 3:15 PM
Nancy Smith Fichter Dance Theatre, School of Dance

MagLab Masterpieces

Explore the intersection of science and art at the world's strongest magnet lab. Create your own magnet-inspired artwork!

4:30 PM - 7:00 PM
MagLab

Parking barriers are raised in advance of events.

FSU OFFICE OF RESEARCH

GENERAL INQUIRIES:
Iain Quinn, Festival Director
iquinn@fsu.edu

MEDIA INQUIRIES:
Kathleen Haughney
khaughney@fsu.edu

